

A map of the state of Maine, colored in a dark teal/green. The word "MAINE" is written in white capital letters across the center. To the northwest, the word "QUÉBEC" is partially visible. A red rectangular box highlights a small area in the northernmost part of Maine, near the border with Quebec. To the right of the box, the text "Map area" is written in red. A dashed line representing a border runs diagonally across the map. In the bottom right corner, the words "JOHN F." are partially visible.
